

MagFly® AP: Disassembly / Assembly of the foot block

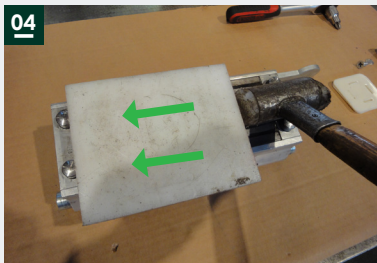

01: Have the required tools ready to use

02: Remove cover cap

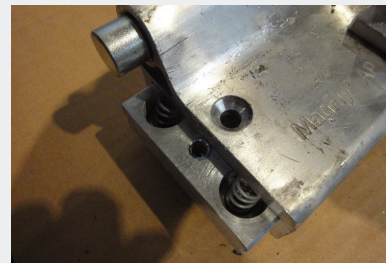

03: Loosen and remove the fixing screw

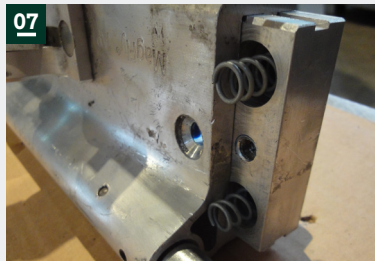

04: Use hammer and tools to loosen the foot block carefully

05: Stop at this disassembly point and remove the foot block by hand

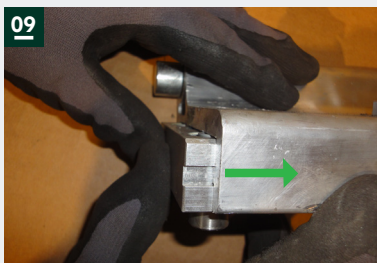

06: Faulty foot block disassembled

07: Place the new foot block into the opening

08: Carefully compress the springs and push them into the block

09: Push the foot block in completely

10: Firmly tighten the fixing screw

11: Reapply the cover cap by using silicone

Issue 06/20 – These assembly instructions have been technically revised. Previous issues are not valid, if a new issue has been technically revised, this issue loses its validity. Please make sure that you are in possession of the latest issue.